

THE RALEIGH NEWS.

VOL. XVI.-123.

RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 29, 1880.

$5.00 PER ANNUM

FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

A National Eulogy on the Late Senator Chandler.—The Sugar Tariff and Post Bonds.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 28.—The Senate is engaged in eulogizing the late Senator Chandler.

The day was entirely devoted to the Senate to eulogies of the late Senator Chandler.

HOUSE.

The House passed several bills, among them one granting pensions to the widow of Lieutenant William H. Benner. The House then proceeded to call committees for reports.

The Committees on Ways and Means this morning concluded the hearing of gentlemen interested in the sugar business and in the proposition to modify the tariff.

Mr. Cook, of Georgia, from the Post-office Committee, reported a bill declaring all public roads and highways post routes. An extended debate followed, pro and con. At the expiration of the debate the bill went over without action. The bill then debated the revision of the rules in Committee of the Whole, but without any progress.

The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to eulogies upon the late Senator Chandler. The House then adjourned.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 28.—The Senate is engaged in eulogizing the late Senator Chandler.

The day was entirely devoted to the Senate to eulogies of the late Senator Chandler.

WASHINGTON.

THE LATEST NEWS FROM THE NATION'S CAPITAL.

Speech of Senator Bayard on the Legal Tender Question.—The Sugar Tariff.—Third Term Danger.

Baltimore Sun, 28th.

Mr. Bayard's speech to-day in the Senate fully realized the general anticipation of its clearness of argument, honesty of reasoning and effective force. Mr. Bayard is always listened to, because he is always believed, however much his convictions may differ from those who hear him utter them. His effort to-day was a masterpiece of reasoning in behalf of his hard-money ideas. As an argument in favor of the old-fashioned American hard-money doctrine it reminded the older portion of the audience of the days of Benton and mint drops. He was warmly and numerously congratulated upon concluding.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE FARMER OF SWIFT CREEK.

Some Society, Farming, Political and General News.

SWIFT CREEK, Jan. 27.—In the matrimonial market I have my old friend and former neighbor, Colonel J. W. B. Watson, appears as a candidate in your Leaven Year column—bless him for a generous, jolly old soul and a happy connoisseur of that wish nearest the heart.

Another of my neighbors, Colonel W. H. Holloman, I understand, has pushed the order line of matrimony, and there is none who appreciate the presence of such a bride more than your correspondent. And the citizens of Wakefield, cotton, and in a moment the whole world, one of the most prominent pilot stood at his post and headed the boat for the shore. But for coolness the loss of life would have been very great, as there were 104 passengers on board, and when the boat reached the shore planks were immediately shoved out to save the lives of the fire and hast of those aboard to save themselves that many jumped overboard. All the passengers were saved. The lost were Wm. Miller, cabin boy; David Morgan, pantry man; Charles Johnson and John Johnson, cooks; Mary Flower and William Hamilton, cabin hands; William Cumming, fireman; and one roustabout whose name is unknown. The cargo is estimated at $120,000.

Did Not Work Well.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 28.—A telegraph from Captain Murdoch of the intense excitement prevails in Shenandoah county, over a collision between the white and colored laborers at the Columbia furnace, near Edinburg. Sheriff Stickney, of that county, has telegraphed the Governor for troops to quell the disturbance. The Governor ordered Captain Magruder of the Woodstock Military Company, to put his command at the disposal of that officer, and the Commonwealth's attorney—Allen—for the preservation of peace. The trouble grew out of the substitution of colored for white laborers in the Columbia furnace.

Stranded Steamer.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 28.—A dispatch from Captain Coe, of the stranded steamship Louisiana, says he has thrown overboard two hundred and fifty tons of the cargo lightened the ship. His propeller is broken in salt water. His propeller is broken and her passengers have been sent to Port Eads. The ship will be saved.

Suicide.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 28.—Chief of Police Bennett committed suicide in his private room at an early hour this morning, blowing his brains out with a pistol. Cause of aberration of mind resulting from domestic trouble.

The Cincinnati Catholics.

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 28.—The Catholic clergy held a meeting yesterday, at which they determined to fight the application for the sale of the church property to pay the debts of Archbishop Purcell.

Invasion of Indian Territory.

Washington Star, 27th.

The President has received the following paper, signed by W. P. Adair, John Adair, Bunch, J. W. W. W. Chisholm, and Frank Peacock and D. W. Hodge, Creek: "From information received we are advised that white intruders, in considerable numbers, are beginning to locate on the Cherokee lands, in the Indian territory, immediately west of the Arkansas river, and are moving to the Red Fork of the river. Also, we are advised that the railroad trains of the M. K. & T. railroad company a few days ago entered several cars of Texas negroes into our country at a point near the Caddo, on the line of the railroad. We respectfully, but firmly, protest against these intruders, and the principles which they represent, and request your Excellency to immediately inquire into the matter and to put a stop to it, and to have the intruders promptly removed from the Indian country. And we further advise the Directors not to ask for relief in this connection, as far as we are advised from sources we deem authentic that the 'emigration' raid, which was attempted last spring on our country, and which your Excellency checked, is in operation again by the interested railroads, and the lands which they intrude upon the movements originally, and we respectfully ask that your Excellency take early steps to prevent this unwarranted assault."

The attorney general will issue a similar order to that of Judge Key. General and special agents have been instructed to check any such attempts upon the Indian territory as that the Indians complain of. Secretary Schurz has directed his officers to promptly report fully everything in this connection.

EXECUTIVE ACTION.

Postmaster-General Key to-day issued the following order: The officers, agents and employees of the Postoffice Department of the States of Missouri, Kansas and Arkansas, and the Indian territory are hereby directed to report to the Secretary of the Interior of any unlawful intrusion by tribes upon the Cherokee lands in the Indian territory, which may come to their notice, and also to impart to the Secretary of the Interior such information as they may receive regarding any contemplated trespass upon said lands.

The Most Powerful Ironclad in the World.

ROME, January 26.—The monster Italian double-turreted ironclad Dante Alighieri, the most powerful war vessel in the world, in a trial of her speed on Saturday, gave fourteen miles per hour, working at six-sevens of her full capacity. It is expected that she will eventually attain a speed of fifteen

WASHINGTON.

THE LATEST NEWS FROM THE NATION'S CAPITAL.

Speech of Senator Bayard on the Legal Tender Question.—The Sugar Tariff.—Third Term Danger.

Baltimore Sun, 28th.

Mr. Bayard's speech to-day in the Senate fully realized the general anticipation of its clearness of argument, honesty of reasoning and effective force. Mr. Bayard is always listened to, because he is always believed, however much his convictions may differ from those who hear him utter them. His effort to-day was a masterpiece of reasoning in behalf of his hard-money ideas. As an argument in favor of the old-fashioned American hard-money doctrine it reminded the older portion of the audience of the days of Benton and mint drops. He was warmly and numerously congratulated upon concluding.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

Delegations representing the different sugar interests of the country had a hearing before the committee of Ways and Means to-day. Sugar men from Boston, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans presented their case. Mr. J. E. Seares of New Haven, whose sugar importing firm is located in New York, was the only speaker to-day. He advocated what is known as the "gold standard," or a fixed coin, of six grammes of gold, three-tenths of a gramme of silver, and seven-tenths of a gramme copper. It is larger than the 26 gold piece, and very bright looking. The 25 gramme dollar contains the same amount of silver as two silver halves, and also six cents' worth of gold. It looks much like the standard silver dollar, though it is smaller. The gold dollar is well known.

THE SUGAR TARIFF.

DAILY NEWS

THURSDAY, JANUARY 29, 1880.

Entered at the Postoffice at Raleigh, N. C., as second-class matter.

Weather Report.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.
For the South Atlantic States, north east to north west winds rising barometer and partly cloudy weather, light local rains or east lower temperature.

Index to New Advertisements.

STRONACH & BELO—Auctioneers.
P. R. RUFFIN—Notice.
A. D. ROYSTER—Tax notice.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Revenue collections yesterday $2,655,000.

—Our streets are again assuming a hardness.

—The market supply seems to be moderately good.

—The health of the city is said to be better now than for some time.

—“Athletic” Hall was as brilliant last evening as gas could make it.

—Mr. M. T. Leach has erected a fine dwelling in the eastern portion of the city.

—Several new firms are visible in Raleigh, with not so many dissolutions.

—The merchants report that they have experienced duller days than yesterday.

—We failed, last night, to receive our usual amount of late telegraphic matter.

—Complaints still reach us with regard to the condition of two or three of the street pumps.

—Henry Mastin & Co., of Baltimore, have taken out a drummer's license for the State.

—Mr. Rosenthal and his accomplished bride have returned from their Southern bridal tour.

—Rumors have it that yet another newspaper will be issued in this city at an early day, the name or motives of which we know not.

—Capt. T. F. Lee has taken the field for active canvass, and will be on the road regularly in future.

—Major A. M. Lewis is erecting a handsome dwelling on the lot at the intersection of Halifax and Johnson streets.

—Colonel C. M. Cook, of Franklin county, arrived in our city last night. His many friends here are always glad to see him.

—The new year is beginning its work—that of occasioning removals on the part of the rich and poor alike. But it's all “business”!

—The Penitentiary has 1,124 subjects. Eight hundred and thirty-two are engaged on railroad work and the remainder are in the Pen.

—Messrs. Stronach & Belo, auctioneers and commission merchants, make an important announcement in this morning's NEWS.

—It's hard to tell what merchant sells goods the cheapest. At any rate some offer inducements to buyers, in order to get rid of present stocks.

—Col. D. A. Jenkins, of Mecklenburg, Col. S. T. Carrow, of Washington, N. C., Thomas B. Keogh, of Greensboro, Col. L. W. Humphrey, of Goldsboro.

—The State Treasurer paid $100 to the Colored Insane Asylum fund yesterday. All bonds to the amount of $45,000 were surrendered for exchange.

—Messrs. John Ferrell and Phil. H. Andrews, two of the most popular and in every way deserving young men in the city, will shortly open a family grocery in the store house recently occupied by Geo. Sliaman & Co.

—Professor Walters, of Staunton, Va., is in the city. He is a reliable piano, repairer and tuner, and will promptly attend to all calls for this description with which he may be favorably applied. Applications may be left at Mr. Kreth's Tailor store.

—A buzzard was seen sitting on the top of one of the chimneys of Mr. Julius Lewis' residence every evening for a number of days. A rifleman, to show his skill, fired away at the unwary bird and felled him with a bullet set strong in the bird's wing, and it fell down the chimney like lightning. It was thought that the bird had certainly been killed, but the next morning Mr. Lewis, whose attention had been called to the incident, pulled down the fire screen and to his amazement and surprise, the bird was perfectly alive and well. Of course, he was liberated. A buzzard is not a desirable bird to keep in a cage as a pet.

—Married.
At the residence of the bride's father, in Keyser, 28th, at 9 o'clock p. m., by Rev. Hartman Edwards, of Rock Hill, S. C. The Rev. J. W. Mims, son of Prof. Mims, deceased, formerly of Furman University, and Miss Edith C. Spear. Attendants: Mr. J. Walter Williams and Miss Mamie L. Spear, Mr. S. Burke Spear and Miss Belle Blue. No cards.

—Married with her mother's engagement ring.

The Carolina Rifle Club.
The thirteenth match at the 200 yard range was shot yesterday afternoon. Twelve members shot, and the match was won by Captain F. A. Olds. The score stood:

Olds, F. A. 4 4 3 4 1-10
Ferrall, John 4 3 4 4 1-10
Bagley, Leroy 0 3 3 0 3-9
Olds, F. A. 4 5 4 5 3-21
Burkhead, C. W. 3 3 0 4 0-10
Lewis, R. H. 3 4 0 4 3-14
Batchelor, W. P. 4 3 3 3 3-16
Foster, Omega 3 4 3 3 3-16
Pullen, J. T. 4 4 3 3 3-16
Foster, Omega 2 0 0 0 0-4
Batchelor, J. B. 3 2 3 4 3-12
Heart, F. H. 3 3 2 2 0-10

The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs. Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better, continued it until he was well, and he is now a strong, healthy boy. I am glad to say, he is now well.

—The following statement from a well known citizen of the country is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

“Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash. to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctor said he had no hope. When I told him it good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Freidine and other medicines which I tried without